Pastor's Devotion

"Immediately" isn't a word that we always like to hear. We don't always like to drop what we're doing in order to respond to the needs of others. Still, Jesus calls to each one of us, in some way or another. Some are apostles, some evangelists, some teachers, pastors, even construction workers, nurses, students, daughters, sons, brothers, sisters... the list goes on. Each of us have something God has called us to do, even now.

Simon and his brother Andrew, James and his brother John, all heard the voice of Jesus calling. We do not hear that they debated about it, whined about it, wondered, fussed, or complained about it. Rather we hear: "...immediately they left their nets and followed him." (Mark 1:18)

God has given you the family, friends, teachers, and classmates who surround you. And, He instructs you to love them. Speaking kindly to our friends, helping with the chores and work of our family, following the directions of our teachers; we can train ourselves to show these acts of love "immediately," responding to Jesus's call.

"Lord Jesus, You are immediately there when I need you in prayer, and Your grace and forgiveness are immediately available whenever I sin. Help me also, to care for others immediately, so they may know your love for us."

- Pastor Schrader
