Pastor's Devotion

What a great week to celebrate Lutheran Schools! It started off with a warm and fun Monday, we remembered the way that our Lord scatters seeds, helps us grow, and how He is the vine, and we are the branches. We got to wear fun clothes throughout the week and hear the stories of Jesus our Savior. We give Him thanks and praise that we are able to learn and worship Him!

Remember that Jesus tells us that we are to love and care for each other. I often see many of you supporting one another, growing together, and sharing God's love in many ways. I love seeing the pictures of students holding hands as it is stretched out in the atrium! It reminds me that God shows no favoritism, and every one of us are connected in Him. When the "important people" liked being important, Jesus came and cared for those who were less loved, less cared for, less fortunate. He does the same for each of us, even today!

You have the ability to treat everyone with the same kind of love. Always remember that when we were less loveable, He loved us, and directs us to do the same.

"Dear Jesus, give me the strength to be able to love like you did, even to those who might be out of my comfort-zone. Thank you for loving me the same way. Amen."

- Pastor Schrader
